FLOWERS.

TUBERCULAR DISEASE OF LUNGS AND BRONCHITIS.

Tubercular consumption of the lungs is that form of the disease most common, most fatal, and until recently considered incurable. Tubercle, from which the name is derived, is a morbid product, deposited from diseased blood in various parts of the body; and in proportion as that fluid is impure, and length of time it remains so, will tubercular diathesis continue.

FALL RIVER, MASS., March 20th, 1879.

JAMES I. FELLOWS, Esq.

Dear Sir: About three years ago I was attacked with bronchitis and tubercular disease of the left lung, and suffered for two years so severely that I was unable to attend to business. About a year ago I was advised to try Fellow's Syrup of Hypophosphites, and before I had finished one bottle my appetite and strength were greatly improved; my cough became less troublesome, my sleep was sound and refreshing, which had not been the case for over a year. I had suffered from nervousness and difficult breathing all the time I was sick; but your syrup has cured it all. I advise all persons afflicted as I was to use Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites.

(Signed) JAMES H. STEWART.

An endless chain of good effects is formed by FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES, and we are safe in saying, from a long experience in medicine, its virtues are not possessed by any other combination.

THE GREAT

KIDNEY REGULATOR

AND DIURETIC.

KIDNEGEN is highly recommended and unsurpassed for WEAK or FOUL KIDNEYS, DROPSY, BRIGHT'S DISEASE, LOSS of ENERGY, NERVOUS DEBILITY, or any OBSTRUCTIONS arising from GRAVEL or BLADDER DISEASES. Also for YELLOW FEVER, BLOOD and KIDNEY POISONING, in fact for all Kidney affections.

☞ By the distillation of a FOREST LEAF with JUNIPER BERRIES and EARTHY SALT we have discovered KIDNEGEN, which acts specifically on the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, removing deposits in the bladder and urine, causing a healthy circulation in the water passages, giving them strength, vigor and causing a healthy color and easy flow of urine. Can be taken at all times, in all climates, without injury to the system. Unlike any other preparation for Kidney difficulties, it has a very pleasant and agreeable taste and flavor. It contains positive diuretic properties and will not nauseate. Ladies especially will like it, and Gentlemen will find KIDNEGEN the best Kidney tonic ever used.

NOTICE.—Each bottle bears the signature of LAWRENCE & MARTIN, after a Proprietary Government stamp, which permits KIDNEGEN to be sold (without license) by druggists, grocers and other storekeepers. Put up in Quart-size Bottles for General and Family Use.

Stone in the Kidney expelled after using Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" about two weeks.

One of the most remarkable cases that has ever been brought to the notice of the public, is that of Mr. J. S. Beach, of Stone Ridge, Ulster Co., N. Y. Mr. Beach had suffered since October 18th, 1874, from the presence of Calculus or Stone in the right Kidney. No less than seven physicians were employed at different times, to whom Mr. Beach paid hundreds of dollars for medical treatment, with only temporary relief from his agony.

By the urgent solicitations of his friends he was induced to try Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy"—experienced a marked improvement from the first day he began to use the medicine; on the 18th of September he voided a stone as large as could be passed through the natural channel.

Mr. Beach concludes a long letter to Dr. Kennedy by saying: "I will always afford me pleasure to recommend the "Favorite Remedy" to those who may be suffering from difficulties of the Kidneys and Bladder, or any disorders arising from an impure state of the blood. The "Favorite Remedy" sold by all druggists. The Doctor's only address, is Rondout, N. Y.

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

Officer Stone, of Lewiston, seized two five-gallon kegs of liquor of the American Express, Thursday evening. They were disguised in a trunk. Several nice trunks have come into the officer's possession in this manner.

The Lewiston Journal says: A lower Main street woman who had received notice to vacate the tenement in which she lived, went out a few moments, Friday morning, and when she returned found the door nailed up and her various household belongings on the other side of the door. A breach was finally made in the door by lower Main street muscle.

At the recent Grand Army Fair, in Brunswick, the total receipts were $550 24, leaving to the Post, the net sum of $352.33 to be devoted to a relief fund, to go in aid of widows, children and soldiers in distress, belonging to the Post. At the recent entertaining of the Grand Army Post in Lewiston, the net receipts were about $60.

A number of Portland roughs got on the train that brought the Portland excursionists to Lewiston, Thursday evening. They commenced wrangling in a car, and soon got into a stand-up fight. The ladies in the car were scared badly, and there was a regular scene. The conductor and brakemen did their best to quell the disturbance. They were unable to get the fight out of them, but they compelled them to transfer the base of hostilities from that car to the smoking car, where they might have free range and pound each other as much as they pleased. After they went into the smoking car, they had the whole car to themselves and made the best of their time until they got to Lewiston. One broken window was about all the damage that the car incurred, and the heavier casualties were borne by the contestants, themselves, as was entirely just. One of them got out of the car with a badly bruised face, and several others were frescoed in black and blue.

Caleb Blake, Esq., of Turner, has a force of men depopulating an ancient Turner forest, where are some old-growth pine, the like to which can be sparsely found in Maine. Mr. Blake was in Lewiston, Friday morning. Said he, running his arms into the big fur coat which graces him from November to April, "I'm cutting some pine that will beat the pine those Penobscot fellers are bragging of, all holler. It's regular, old-growth punkin' pine, such as you don't find everywhere. I cut some there, last year that were three feet through, and am getting some this year that are bigger than that. Why! it was old-growth pine in 1813, when old Squire Briggs bought that tract of land, and it's been growing ever since. I've got thirty men at work, and six of the biggest teams there are in the State. They're blue-ribbon oxen—took the first prize at the State Fair. I'm selling my pine to the Bleachery, the Lewiston machine company, and other corporations there. They don't allow any such punkin pine as that to slip through their hands." Mr. Blake's big pines will probably be seen heading this way before the snow leaves.—Journal.

Lewiston has consumed, for the past three weeks, 1,350,000 gallons of water per day, against 1,000,000 gallons per day in the hottest part of last summer. In the month of January the total consumption was 35,000,000 gallons, while for last August, it was only 30,000,000 gallons. It seems strange that in cold weather, a much larger amount of water should be used than in the heated term, when the street sprinklers distribute hundred of gallons, daily, in the dusty roads, and an army of amateur hosemen fire watery fusilades from the muzzle of lawn hose. The figures conclusively prove that there is a great waste of water, and a large class of water takers, who allow a perpetual stream to run through their faucets, to prevent freezing. Some have no cellars and consequently this is their only recourse; and some appear to lack the enterprise necessary to go down stairs and turn the cock, at night. The rules of the water board forbid the waste of water in this way, but it is a hard thing to prevent. With ordinary prudence 800,000 gallons, at most, ought to be equal to daily consumption of water in Lewiston, and the present daily faucet-waste is estimated at fully 500,000 gallons. On one of the coldest weeks of this winter, the drain on the reservoir and pumps jumped up two and a half million gallons over the previous week's consumption. A drain of 1,000,000 gallons lowers the reservoir about one foot.

Cumberland.

An old man named Hatch, an inmate of the Portland Alms House, fell down a flight of stairs, Friday, receiving injuries that will probably prove fatal.

The printers are now busily at work on town reports. Wm. M. Marks has just issued the annual report of the municipal officers of the town of Falmouth, for the year ending March, 1881. The total valuation, real and personal, is $703,410; personal, $110,585; real, $592,825; number of polls, 371; rate of taxation, $1.23 on $10); poll tax, $3. It is recommended that $6,150 be raised for the coming year. The receipts for the year were $12,498.65, and the expenditures $9,876.01. The assets are $9,953.56, and the liabilities $7,469.27.

Kennebec.

A Grand Military Ball will be held in Waterville, at Town Hall, on the evening of Friday, March 4th, under the supices of Co. H., 3d Regt. M. V. M. Music will be furnished by Hanagan's Orchestra, of Augusta. A large number of invitations have been issued.

Waterville has only 129 voters less than Gardiner, and in the matter of property leads that city $238,367. Ha lowell, another city, falls behind Waterville 509 in number of votes, and more than a million dollars in valuation. When our new factory is up and running, the valuation of Waterville will be about $800,000 more, and the population largely increased.—Sentinel.

The Waterville Sentinel says: Real estate transactions continue on a large scale. Within the past week the valuable property above named has been sold by Mr. Angier Smith, to a company of real estate brokers, comprising E. E. Thayer, Dr. Pulsifer, C. E. Gray and Reuben Foster. The price paid was $15,000. It is understood that the hotel block will be removed, and a fine business block take its place, but we presume nothing definite is known by outsiders.

Lincoln.

Sunday, of last week, was a high day for the Methodist church in Boothbay. Two years ago last summer a fine church was built costing $5,000. When dedicated Jan. 1st, 1879, there remained upon it a debt of $1,800, which has been reduced to $500. On the Sabbath in question, Rev.

A. B. Kending, D. D., the irrepressible pastor of the Bromfield St. M. E. church, Boston, occupied the pulpit and preached on the "Duty of Giving." At the close of the sermon which was a grand, soul inspiring, and purse opening effort, he just told the people—which was a complete surprise—that the plan was to lift the remaining debt of $500, and in thirty-five minutes after the sermon closed, $580 was pledged and before the evening service $10 more were added to the amount.

John Genthner, of Bremen, was thrown down by a fractious horse, Wednesday of last week, and broke his wrist.

The News says the factory enterprise, at Waldoboro, has taken a fresh start. Some of the principal movers in the matter, met Wednesday evening, and determined upon a more energetic prosecution of the work. The probability of a number citizens increasing their grist subscription was shown, and the work of obtaining this increase was begun by a special committee. There is no question about the success of the project if everybody will do all they ought to now. One citizen has offered the gift of a piece of land for the erection of the mill, and several have already proposed to increase their subscriptions and some have proposed to double the amount. Everybody seems to feel the importance of taking no backward steps.

A FRESH BATCH OF CABINET GOSSIP.

As the time for the arrival of Gen. Garfield approaches, the interest in the composition of the new Cabinet increases. There is, however, a greater willingness now than there has been for some weeks among the political people to admit that no one really knows anything about the Cabinet, except Gen. Garfield himself. A gentleman who has just arrived from Mentor says that he knows absolutely that the only place that has been decided upon is that of Senator Blaine, and that whatever may be said or speculated, with respect to his failure to resign his position in the Senate, it is certain that he will be Secretary of State. It is true, this gentleman says, that Gen. Garfield has reduced the names from which a Cabinet shall be selected to a comparatively small number, not exceeding twelve, but who of these twelve shall be selected is not and will not be definitely determined until the President-elect shall arrive here.

Folger's friends have taken new hope from the report that the United States Supreme Court is soon to decide in his favor the case involving his claim for commissions for the sale of internal revenue stamps, when he was Assistant Treasurer of the United States at New York, and that consequently the reports that the claim is a job will be proved to be untrue. Senator Allison's friends, however, in the last few days have had their expectations revived, and if the decision should be made tonight it is very certain that those near to Senator Allison would be disappointed if he should not be appointed Secretary of the Treasury.

There are a good many Iowa politicians here, and some of them, however, are in favor of the appointment of Senator Kirkwood as Secretary of the Interior instead of Allison to the Treasury. Some of the prominent friends of James F. Wilson strongly urge the selection of Kirkwood, with a view of making the way clear for Wilson to come immediately to the Senate. Said one of these Iowa men: "If James F. Wilson ever steps his foot inside the Senate Chamber it will be many a year before he will leave it."

Senator Logan still believes that if any person is appointed in the Cabinet from Illinois Robert Lincoln will be the man, but some of the Illinois delegation are not certain that complications will not arise which will make it impossible to appoint any one from Illinois to the Cabinet. There seems to be no possible chance for the selection of Emery A. Storrs, and it is said that it has never been the intention from the begining to appoint him. The Wisconsin Congressmen have about decided that there is no hope for the appointment of a Cabinet officer from that State, and they assign their failure to the fact that the Wisconsin delegation in Congress and Wisconsin politicians outside of Congress have not been agreed upon their candidate. There does not seem to be any foundation for the belief that it was the purpose originally to appoint a Cabinet officer from that State.

The New York men are still very confident that that State will have a place in the Cabinet. It is certain that Mr. Conkling has lost none of his good humor since his return from Mentor. There are those who still insist that Morton will be Secretary of the Navy and that Conkling will be satisfied with that and with some important diplomatic appointments.

Indiana appears to be barred out; since the election of Ben Harrison to the Senate there has been no serious expectation that a Cabinet officer would be selected from that State. Some Ohio people still expect that Governor Foster will be made Postmaster General. A significant despatch from Columbus indicates that something seems to be going on there at Governor Foster's home, where it is stated that he appears to be making arrangements to break up living at the capital. The speculations do not make it clear whether he is to go into the Cabinet or take a foreign mission.

The Pennsylvania men still are of the opinion that the State will not be overlooked in the Cabinet. Don Cameron is understood not to want a place, and no claim is made that Pennsylvania will be assigned anything except the Attorney Generalship. Brewster is still prominently mentioned in that connection.

The Department of Justice is to be more important under this Administration than it has been for four years, as it is believed to be the purpose of Gen. Garfield in the case of the denial of suffrage in the South, to give voters whatever protection on existing Federal statutes can afford. The fact is that Cabinet makers are very much at their wits end, and are eagerly waiting the arrival of the President-elect.—Wash. Cor. Boston Journal.

DEMOCRACY BEARS FRUIT.

[From the N. Y. Tribune.]

Not every thorn has its rose. But there is some small compensation for the financial distress, which the country has been called to endure. The country knows what the financial wisdom of the Democratic party amounts to, at last. For twenty years Democratic statesmen have been saying, "Give us a chance, and you shall see wise legislation." In the so-called Funding bill, we have the love y flower, and in its consequences the ripe fruit of Democratic wisdom. Or rather—let us be just!—we can dimly imagine what the ripe fruit would be if we had no Republican Administration to stop the mischief by buying bonds. Congress finishes its part, and fully manifested its wisdom, when it gave 2,000 National banks the strongest possible reason for suddenly retiring $200,000,000 of circulation. Measure, if possible, the losses and disasters, the shock to the public credit, and the blow to individual enterprise, which have already resulted from the retirement of about ten millions of circulation; then multiply that result by twenty, and we shall have some faint idea of the practical fruits of Democratic statesmanship, as applied to the solution of financial questions.

A Republican Secretary of the Treasury has interfered, to save the country from immediate experience of the full consequences of Democratic legislation. For the moment, purchases of bonds will serve to postpone part of the effects of a violent contraction. Democratic lawgivers, with some lunatics of both parties, imagine that the Government is engaged in a struggle with the banks. Mr. Sherman is not a fool. He knows perfectly well, if some Congressmen and editors do not, that the Government is utterly powerless to resist, for any length of time, if the banks conclude to surrender circulation. The utmost that it can do is to render the contraction of currency less disastrous to the business interests of the country. This he seeks to do by expending in the purchase of bonds the surplus revenues which may be expected for some months to come. The money paid in for redemption of notes, the Treasury is obliged to have on hand for that purpose, and cannot use in any other way. It cannot be spent in buying bonds, and at the same time retained for redemption of notes as they come in. Hence the power of the Secretary is limited. Whatever power he has under the law, he uses; but he has no power at all to make new laws for the protection of the country against Democratic stupidity. If he were engaged, as some dolts imagine, in an attempt to crush or coerce the banks, he would be making an effort foolish enough and hopeless enough even for a Democratic Congressman—and what more can possibly be said? Acting within their rights under the law, the banks have infinitely more power than any Secretary of the Treasury would have in an attempt which no law empowers him to make. Secretary Sherman is making an honest effort to mitigate the immediate consequences of Democratic idiocy; that is all. If the Funding bill becomes a law Mr. Sherman has too much sense to fancy that the surrender of currency can be stopped.

It is supposed by the Democratic donkey, and by such Republicans as look to him for wisdom, that contraction will cease as soon as the Funding bill has been signed. Deposit of notes for reduction of circulation will cease, but that is all. The banks which do not choose to take three per cent. bonds, and to tie themselves up indefinitely, will then proceed to act under either of the two sections 5,160 or 5,224, Revised Statutes. Under Section 5,160 the banks can gather in their own notes, helping each other throughout the country, and reduce capital and circulation as fast as they can accumulate notes in sums of reasonable amount, thereupon getting back a proportionate amount of their bonds. Or, under sections 5,220–5,224 inclusive, any bank can retire from the National system and get back all its bonds without delay. For, under 5,220, any National bank can go into liquidation as such by a vote of two thirds of its stock. Notice must be given for two months, section 5,221; but it is not required that the surrender of circulation shall be deferred a single day. For section 5,222 provides that "Within six "months from the date of the vote to go "into liquidation, the association shall de- "posit with the Treasurer of the United "States lawful money of the United States "sufficient to redeem all its outstanding "circulation." This can be done at any time, but must be done within six months. And then section 5,224 provides:

Whenever a sufficient deposit of lawful money to redeem the outstanding circulation of an association proposing to close its business has been made, the bonds deposited by the association to secure payment of its notes shall be reassigned to it in the manner prescribed by section 5,162; and thereafter the association and its shareholders shall stand discharged from all liabilities upon the circulating notes, and those notes shall be redeemed at the Treasury of the United States.

In this manner any bank can cease to be a National bank, get rid of its circulation, recover its bonds and organize and begin to do business as a State bank within a single week. "But they will not do it," says the Democratic statesman. With equal positiveness and equal wisdom the same marvellous blunderer said that the banks would never surrender circulation—it was too precious to them. Within a week, if the so-called Funding bill becomes a law, we shall begin to see National banks withdrawing from the system. Democratic statesmanship is stupid enough to attempt to rob the banks, but altogether too stupid to get it done effectually. One thing this Congress has done. It has enabled all shareholders in National banks to get the measure of Democratic honesty and decency, and the whole people to get the measure of Democratic wisdom.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY

En Route to Washington Again.

THE PRESIDENT-ELECT FEELINGLY RESPONDS TO A FAREWELL ADDRESS.

Enthusiastic Greetings and Military Salutes.

MENTON, Feb. 28. Gen. Garfield took his departure for Washington at 12:30 to-day on a special train made up by the Pennsylvania Company. The air was crisp and clear and the entire population of Mentor and neighboring villages, with many visitors from distant points, assembled to bid the President-elect "God speed." The Presidential party consisted of Gen. Garfield, wife, mother, Mrs. Eliza Garfield, two sons, Irwin and Abram, a daughter, Miss Mollie, with four servants, Gen. A. G. Swaine, Col. L. A. Sheldon and wife, Capt. C. E. Hedry, O. C. Judd and J. D. Brown, Secretary. After assisting the ladies on the train, Gen. Garfield appeared on the platform and in response to a farewell addresss delivered by A. D. Tinkers, of Painesville, responded in a cordial and feeling speech, expressive of the friendly and confidential relations that existed between himself and his neighbors and constituents. A stop of fifteen minutes was made at Ashtabula, where the citizens gave an enthusiastic greeting and the military fired salutes. Here the President-elect also briefly addressed his fellow-citizens, after which the train rushed rapidly on.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 28. Dinner was furnished by Gen. Garfield and party just before the train reached Warren. No wine was served. Between Warren and Youngstown the flying train was greeted at frequent intervals by villagers who had gathered in groups in hope of seeing Gen. Garfield.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 28. At Youngstown there was a repetition of the scenes at the previous stations but the crowd amounted to nearly 5,000 people of whom a large share were workers in the machine shops and furnaces. Gen. Garfield addressed them cordially. Pittsburg was reached about 7:30, no speeches having been made between Youngstown and this point, although one or two stops were made and there were frequent calls for Garfield. It was decided not to stop in Pittsburg as the time was limited and the train accordingly rushed on its way to Washington.

WALL STREET.

The Stock Market Continues Feverish.

Money Market Still Stringent.

All Eyes Turned Upon Congress.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. The Treasury up to noon to-day had succeeded in buying only $23,000 of 5 and 6 per cent bonds.

The amount bought since Friday up to noon to-day is $6,358,800.

While comparatively little money is coming out of the Treasury the deposits to withdraw bank note circulation are also small, these to-day being $66,550 in cash and $8,500 collected on checks deposited on Saturday, the total being $125,050.

The stock market continues feverish. All eyes are turned upon Congress to watch its action respecting the Refunding bill. The securities and shares which advanced so much Saturday afternoon are generally lower to-day.

In the money market stock brokers are paying 1-16 to 4 per cent. per day, plus 6 per cent. These rates are lower than Friday and Saturday but the money market must yet be called stringent.

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS—Third Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.

Mr. Kirkwood, from the Select Committee, reported the testimony taken at the present session in relation to the removal of the Poncas; ordered printed. The credentials of Wm. Malone from Virginia were filed.

Mr. Windom stated that he would ask to submit some remarks on the Isthmus Canal later in the day.

Mr. Eaton gave notice that he would then press the resolution to a vote.

Conference reports on the Post Office and Indian appropriation bills were adopted. Mr. Windom addressed the Senate upon the resolution on the table, declaring that the Government of the United States will insist that its consent is a necessary condition precedent to a construction of an Isthmian thoroughfare.

After debate the bill was finally recommitted.

He said it did not comport with our honor or our national traditions to stubbornly block the world's progress. Our mission was to lead, not obstruct, and we must be prepared to give to the commerce of the world the facilities to which it was entitled. The Senate insisted upon its amendments to the River and Harbor bill. Conferees were appointed. The Senate at 6:10 P. M. adjourned.

House.

The House met at 10 o'clock to continuance of Saturday's session. Mr. Clymer, in a brief speech presented to the House the portrait of Frederick A. Muhlenburg, Speaker of the First and Third Congresses, which will be placed in the lobby in the rear of the Speaker's desk.

Mr. Hawley offered a resolution which was adopted requesting the Speaker to inform the great grandchildren of Muhlenburg of the satisfaction with which the portrait was received.

The House voted on the amendments to the Sundry Civil bill. The amendmen appropriating a quarter of a million for the Baltimore Post Office was agreed to.

The amendment striking out the appropriation for the purchase of the Bragg and Polk papers was agreed to.

The amendment appropriating $200,000 to establish naval coaling stations on the Isthmus of Panama was agreed to.

The bulk of the affirmative votes came from the Republican side. The House adjourned at 10:55 and at 11 the Monday session began.

Mr. Ladd introduced a resolution of the Maine Legislature relative to the Eastern bridge.

The House disagreed to the Senate amendments of the River and Harbor bill and a Conference Committee was appointed.

The Conference report on the legislative bill was agreed to.

The House soon after took a recess until this evening when the memorial services in honor of the late Fernando Wood were held.

WASHINGTON.

The President on the Civil Service Rules.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. A meeting of the Ways and Means Committee of the House will be held to-morrow to take action upon the sugar question.

The Appropriations Committee expect to complete the General Deficiency bill and report it to the House to-morrow. This is the last of the appropriation bills and the only one still to pass the House. The President sent a message to Congress to-day upon the results in the Post Office and Custom House in New York of the application of the civil service rules, requiring open competitive examination, for appointment and promotions. He says: The reports thereon present a very gratifying statement of the application of the rules referred to in the two largest and most important local offices in the civil service of the Government. Replying to the Senate resolutions calling for information in regard to appointments and the practical workings of the civil service rules in the Customs service at New York, the Secretary of the Treasury to-day transmitted to the Senate an elaborate report from Collector Merritt giving the statistical details asked. The report showed that a sudden increase in the volume of imports in 1880 require a large increase in the force in the Custom House of that city.

THE STORM-SMITTEN WEST.

Rain, Snow, Wind and Floods.

Trains Delayed.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 28. Telegrams from many points report heavy rains for several hours followed by a breeze over the territory east of the Mississippi river, over three hundred miles wide, and extending north and south nearly the whole length of the river. The change to freezing is principally north of the Ohio river.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 28. The rain of Saturday changed into a fearful blow and heavy snow on Sunday. Railroad trains on all lines are blocked by the heaviest snow blockade of the season. The water and snow combined with the freezing temperature makes it certain that the railroads will be cleared with the greatest difficulty.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28. The storm of wind and snow which began yesterday afternoon continues. Telegraphic reports which are badly interrupted make it that severest of the season in Washington, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan. Minnesota and Western Iowa were only slightly visited by it. Trains on all the railroads centering here are delayed and freight trains are not attempting to move out.

SECOND DESPATCH.—At 9 o'clock 23 mails were due at the post office and but two had arrived. The storm on the lake yesterday was the severest experienced for years. At the Cribs the wind blew 34 miles per hour and the ice surged by at the rate of seven miles per hour.

There was danger that the port hotels would become obstructed with ice and cut off the city's water supply, but men working in water up to their waists managed to keep them clear.

Gentlemen who arrived from Clinton, Ia., said the train passed through some sections of the Prairies where little farm houses were almost hal; submerged by water.

WEST BROOKFIELD, Feb. 28. The Congregational church at this place was burned to-night. The edifice with a fine organ and clock, was a total loss. It was valued at $15,000; insured $10,000. It is supposed to have been struck by lightning.

NEW YORK.

Dense Fog—Perilous Navigation.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. The fog to-day was more dense on the river than for years, causing considerable detention to travel and a number of accidents. The ferry boats on almost every trip struck against some object, lying at anchor in the stream. The Farragut came within an ace of running into one of the annex boats and there was terrible excitement among the passengers, many of whom were with difficulty prevented from jumping overboard.

TAKIO, Jan. 26. Fire destroyed 11,000 houses. Thirty thousand people rendered homeless.

Further Particulars of the Battle with the Boers.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. A despatch from Mount Prospect says the Boers carried the British position on Apitzkop by a rush. A correspondent was taken prisoner, but afterwards released. He says that General Colley's body is on the hill. It is quite clear that the loss of the hill was not due to a failure of ammunition.

Gen. Colley over estimated the strength of his position and left its most vital part, while the Boers attacked in force, but poorly defended. The detached squadron will immediately land a brigade of seamen and marines with guns at Durban and they will be sent to the front.

The little boy recently received a fine gold watch from a gentleman in Augusta as an offering from a Spiritualist.

BENEFIT FOR THE TEMPERANCE COFFEE HOUSE. By the kindness of the young ladies who are interested in the cause of temperance, the Coffee House on Central street is to have a benefit entertainment, at City Hall next Thursday evening, to meet the unpaid expenses of its starting, and as a part of the work of the Women's Union. The young ladies will solicit contributions of cake for their tables to-day, and will no doubt meet with a liberal response.

AN HONEST MAN. Saturday morning a gentleman went into the United States Hotel, Portland, wrote a letter and afterwards took a stamp from his pocket-book. He laid the wallet on the table and forgot to put it into his pocket. He took the car for Deering and when about to pay his fare discovered that his money was gone. The wallet contained $600. When the gentleman reached the hotel on his return, the clerk handed him his property and he was delighted to receive it. Mr. Gaspar Hobbs, the hackman at the hotel, saw it lying on the table and had picked it up and carried it to the office.

The first through train from Woodstock, since the snow blockade set in on the New Brunswick Railway, arrived at Gibson Friday night, having taken two days to force its way along from Woodstock Junction. The storm was the worst that has visited that section for four years.

A SOCIAL EVENT. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Simpson entertained their friends at their residence on Second street, last evening. The company was a large and brilliant one, and as there was a happy intermingling of old and young the occasion was one of real enjoyment. The toilettes of the ladies were very handsome and in some instances quite elaborate. During the early part of the evening the time was pleasantly passed in social intercourse, and then came choice refreshments, followed by dancing, the latter being quite generally participated in and continued until a late hour. The host and hostess discharged the honors of the occasion in a very felicitous manner and the gathering will be remembered as one of the social events of the season.

FOR THE LADIES. Skirts of faille, satin and foulard, plaited or flounced at the bottom and covered with white tulle, embroidered with white let, are just now very fashionable for ball dresses. They are generally made with culrasse bodice and tulle sleeves, or habit jacket of a different color. Some are also made in the princesse style, laced at the back, with tulle scarf drapery just below the waist, or falling from the back of the skirt, half across the front, and fixed, with bow of lace and flowers, about six inches from the bottom of the dress at the front. The sleeves are made half long, with tulle falling cuffs. In coiffures the dressing will continue low in the neck, with broad braids reaching as nearly from ear to ear as possible. The "Bernhardt wave" is in vogue, and many ladies resort to invisible nets to keep this in place. Very delicate crimpings are worn at the forehead, but not in mass. Combs and ornaments will be worn in the hair more than ever.

ASSAULT CASE. A man named John Nealley had a saloon keeper named Chas. Robinson arraigned in the Police Court yesterday for assaulting him. Nealley testified that he went into Robinson's saloon with a man named Clark, with whom he had driven from Winterport, and had dinner. Not feeling very well he did not eat much and concluded that seventeen cents would just about settle his bill. Robinson objected to this and he finally paid him twenty-five cents, his regular price for a dinner. After this they had some talk, which resulted in a sore nose and cheek for Nealley, who said that Robinson struck and bit him. Clark, who was in the saloon at the time, also testified that he saw Robinson strike the blow. Robinson admitted that he had a tussle with Nealley, which he claimed was all in play, but denied that he struck or bit him. When asked how he accounted for the rather sickly appearance of Nealley's nose, he said that he must have bumped it against the counter during the scuffle. Judge Brett, however, concluded that the law didn't recognize such playfulness and fined Robinson three dollars and costs.

THE GRAND ARMY HALL. A crew of men are now at work in Dow's Block renovating the hall which was recently leased by Post Beals for a term of five years. The main hall is thirty-eight by forty-eight feet in size, has a new hard pine floor, and will make a very bright and cheerful room when completed. It will be lighted by a large chandelier in the centre, around which is a scroll work ventilator in the form of the badges worn by the order, with the monogram "G. A. R." A large platform has been erected for the Commander's chair, with the Adjutant's chair on one side and the Quartermaster's on the other. Smaller platforms will be placed in the proper places around the hall for the three other officers, each of which will be covered by a canopy. There are two large ante-rooms. One will be used as the ladies' room and is supplied with all the modern conveniences and will be neatly carpeted. The other is the kitchen and will be supplied with everything necessary to prepare a supper whenever the Post have a sociable. It is connected with the main hall by a slide, so that the dishes can be passed from one room to the other. The Post feel a just pride in fitting up their new quarters, which, when finished, will equal, if not excel, any in the State. They will be formally opened with public exercises.

LEWISTON'S MILLS. The Journal says: "The total amount of time lost by our Lewiston factories on account of a shortage of water since last fall, makes smaller figures than one would suppose. We learn from the paymaster of one of our large corporations, that just nine days' time in all, have been lost by the mills and operatives, this winter on account of water troubles, now happily over. When we consider how little time this is, in comparison with the whole number of days in which the mills have given uninterrupted employment to over 6,000 operatives, and think of the much greater loss of time caused by low water in other less favored places, the pleasing conclusions come that, after all, we ought to shake hands with ourselves; and that Lewiston is obviously a city that Providence smiles upon, destined to a happy and healthy enlargement. And this is not all. By working evenings, for the past two or three weeks, fully three days' time has been made up by some of the mills, reducing the total amount of time lost to just six days—one week out of 52! As the daily earnings of Lewiston's mill operatives are about $7,500 the total amount of wages lost, taking these figures, is about $45,000—no small sum—out of a total disbursement of $2,500,000, by our cotton mills. More time will be made up by many of our mills—perhaps the whole time lost. The mills which have been run evenings, of late, will not work over full time, next week, as the help are thoroughly tired."

Important Change in Postal Matters.

Postmaster General Maynard has revoked section 232 of the postal regulations of 1879 which permitted to pass through the mail as third-class matter at the rate of one cent for two ounces, all printed commercial papers filled out in writing, such as papers of legal procedure, deeds of all kinds, way bills or bills of lading, notices, invoices, the various documents of insurance companies, bills of goods, bank notices, &c. Letter postage must now be paid on the above named, but the following additions in writing are still permitted as the reduced rate of postage:

1.—Date and name of the addressed and of the sender of circulars, and the correction of mere typographical errors therein.

FROM MINNEAPOLIS.

An Interesting Letter From Lysander Strickland, Esq.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 21, 1881.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

The weather here has been extremely cold. Days clear and seldom warm enough in the middle of the day to thaw in any place.

Snow in large quantities, and the railroads make a new and novel use of it. Along exposed places on the west side of the track, and parallel therewith, about six rods distant is piled a swinrow of snow miles in length, nearly four feet high, to prevent blocking the track, and it answers a good purpose.

I need not attempt to describe the streets, churches, school buildings, or dwellings, because our people know much of these, and no city has more attractive or convenient buildings than Minneapolis.

I find more difficulties in the lumber trade than I expected. About one hundred and ninety millions feet pine lumber sawed the past season not over one-eighth of which is clear. This lumber must all be seasoned before sold, therefore must be drawn from a quarter of a mile to a mile, to be piled, and when dry must be carted to a planing mill to be dressed, then to a railroad, so one may understand the vast labor in preparing lumber for sale.

About one half the quantity sawed, is in the yards on the first day of January, and the ground necessary to pile this amount is very large. Clear lumber is worth thirty-five dollars per thousand, and boarding boards twelve dollars, all dressed.

All the lumber saw mills, except one, on this side are owned by the Water Power Co., and they saw the logs by the thousand, for two dollars and twenty-five cents; logs put to the mills and the lumber taken from the mills as fast as sawed.

Logs at the mills cost about seven dollars. Shingles, laths and pickets are also made in large quantities.

The river is smaller than I expected and complaint is made or want of water, so Congress is asked to make an appropriation to dam the large lakes at the head waters of the Mississippi in order to supply the mills in dry times.

To save water said Water Power Co. are now building a granite dam in the current, and making two tunnels, so no water can be wasted, all of which will cost by estimate sixty thousand dollars.

The lumber trade is in a healthy condition, with good prospects for the coming season. But little lumber is now sold on account of cold weather and deep snow.

The largest industry here is the flour trade. I have a statement carefully prepared by one interested in the trade, that when the mills are completed, now in process of building, twenty-two thousand barrels of flour can be put up per day.

The mills to do this immense work are of stone and most thoroughly built, and the labor with teams and rail to do this work can hardly be estimated.

It is said one mill, nearly finished, at a cost of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, would have made enough, it running from the first of last September to the first of last January, to have paid for the building.

No competition in the wheat market, as all the owners of these mills employ one man to supply their daily wants.

The flour goes to all parts of the world and always a plenty of orders on hand.

Maine men are largely engaged in the lumber and flour trade and two of the first and most honored in these two industries were but a few years ago citizens of Bangor. One of these to teach his children the beauties of coasting, which our New England children so largely enjoy, erected, in his grounds a platform twelve feet high, making an inclined plane of eighty feet. This is a very attractive amusement for the children.

Another large and money making industry, is the Minneapolis harvester and twine binder. This machine, with one pair of horses and teamster, will cut and bundle ten or twelve acres of wheat per day, the twine costing not over twenty cents per acre. One hundred and eighty men are thus employed. Two thousand machines are to be built this season, each selling at three hundred dollars.

The "North Star Woolen Mill" is one of the most interesting manufacturing companies here. Its goods of blankets in great variety of the best stock, with flannels and cassimeres and fancy stocking yarns, equal to the best made in this country, are always on hand. This company employs one hundred and seventy persons, and the mill is largely owned by a former resident of Bangor.

A cotton mill is in active operation, mostly engaged in making seamless bags.

Flour for foreign shipment is packed in burlap bags. For home use large quantities are packed in paper bags, which bear a great deal of handling without loss.

I quote prices of a few family goods, so that such as intend to leave the good old State of Maine and go West because of cheap living, may not be deceived:

THE BANGOR AND PISCATAQUIS RAILROAD.

A Bill Looking to Its Extension to the Lakes.

The following bill prepared yesterday by His Honor Mayor Brown and City Solicitor Vose, will come before the City Government this evening, and if approved will be presented to the Legislature:

STATE OF MAINE,

In the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty-one.

An act to authorize the city of Bangor to make an agreement that a part of the net earnings of the E. & P. R. R. may be appropriated each year to pay the interest on the cost of extending said road to Moosehead Lake, and for a sinking fund to pay for the cost of such extension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled as follows:

Sec. 1. The city of Bangor is authorized to make any agreement with the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad Company, or any other parties, to allow any portion of the net earnings of said road to be set apart for the purpose of paying the interest agreed upon, on the cost of constructing the extension of said Railroad to the foot of Moosehead Lake, in Greenville, and for a sinking fund to pay the cost of such construction.

Sec. 2. This act shall not take effect until the substance of it shall have been submitted and accepted by the legal voters of the city of Bangor, agreeably to the provisions of section eighty-three of chapter fifty-one of the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

MILITIA OF MAINE.

Annual Report of the Adjutant General, Acting Quartermaster, and Paymaster General.

The militia organization of this State has undergone many radical changes the past year, and the report of General Beal will be read with much interest by all who regard the honor and prosperity of our beloved commonwealth. All of the old men have been discharged, and a new organization with new enlistments has been perfected. The character and standing of the officers and men have been greatly improved, and with a few exceptions are all that can be desired to make good soldiers. The Adjutant General thinks that if the present organization be completed, and an appropriation made sufficient to carry out the law with the new rules and regulations, the State will have reason to feel that the militia is no burden. The recommendations of General Beal are very important, for the time was, and we know not how soon it may come again, when this branch of our government will be in the minds of our people paramount to all others. The expenses of sustaining the present force are very small compared with those of other States, and the public should bear in mind that nearly every man belonging to the militia pays out from his own pocket more dollars than he receives from the State.

ORGANIZATION.

The Legislature of last Winter passed a resolve, approved February 14, 1880, authorizing a commission to be appointed by the Commander-in-chief, to revise, amend, or add to the laws relating to the Militia.

The following were appointed by General Order No. 9, dated February 14, 1880: Brigadier General, Charles W. Tilden; Colonel, Joseph B. Peaks; Lieutenant Colonel, Daniel White; Lieutenant Colonel, J. Marshall Brown; Major, Frank E. Nye.

The commissioner reported to the same Legislature a very concise, practical, militia law, well adapted to the wants of the State, which was adopted with some slight amendments.

The changes in the law have occasioned a reorganization of the entire Militia; all officers have been newly commissioned, and all men enlisted and mustered into service.

As now provided the Militia is divided into three parts. Enrolled, Reserve, and Active or Volunteer. The first are required, subject to any duty, unless in case of war, or for the purpose of preventing, repelling or suppressing invasion, insurrection or riot, or in aiding civil officers in the execution of the laws, and then only when the active force shall be insufficient for that purpose.

From the thirteen old infantry companies, twelve were reorganized to conform to the requirements of the new law, and one, the Belfast City Guards, was disbanded.

Four new ones have been organized, in the towns of Dexter, Dover, Rockland and Waterville, making sixteen companies now organized into two regiments of eight companies each; the first regiment having its headquarters located in Portland, and the second in Bangor. The Frontier Guards of Eastport have also been reorganized, and remain at this time, unattached to either regiment.

The Androscoggin Light Artillery, of Lewiston, was disbanded, and the First Platoon of First Maine Battery of Light Artillery enlisted and organized from the same. The Second Platoon was located in Portland, and is composed of a fine body of young men, who will make one of the most efficient organizations in the service.

These two platoons are now thoroughly organized as First Maine Battery of Light Artillery, and armed with four Napoleon twelve-pound guns. Also, each is provided with forty Springfield breach-loading rifles and equipments, which make them useful for either artillery or infantry.

New uniforms, arms and equipments have been furnished throughout, and the arms turned in from the old companies have been re-issued to the reserve militia, making every company completely armed and equipped.

Number of officers,	71
Number of enlisted men,	953
Total,	1024

DUTIES.

But one day's service has been ordered for inspection of the two regiments the past year.

The First Regiment, Col. J. M. Brown, was inspected at Portland, September 9th, by Lieut. Col. John T. Richards, of His Excellency's Staff.

The Second Regiment, Col. Daniel White, was inspected by companies, at their armories, by Brig. Gen. Charles W. Tilden, Inspector General.

The companies are made up of good material, care having been taken in reorganizing the old commands, and the formation of new companies, to have such men as would take an interest in the several organizations composing the regiments. Could there be an annual encampment of the active militia of the State, of at least six days, it would tend largely to increase the interest already manifested, beside imparting to the troops that inspiration in regimental drill, which it is impossible to acquire in the company drill. In view of this fact, it is to be hoped that the State will continue its encouragement, and that an appropriation sufficient for the above purpose will be made annually.

ENCAMPMENTS.

The law provides, and it is understood for the troops to be called together for camp duty each year; and there is nothing to familiarize the officers and men with the duties of a soldier in the field but this, and on the score of economy, the Adjutant General thinks it more economical to have a portion of the inspection, and also the rifle practice, at these times, than to have them at different periods during the year, and respectfully recommends an appropriation for an encampment each year.

ARSENAL AND LAW.

The Arsenal at Bangor is now in good condition, and the property has been faithfully cared for by the Keeper.

General Beal thinks it would be economy for the State to have a small building erected upon the State grounds, at Augusta, near the railroad, suitable for storage of camp and garrison equipage, and all other property needed for use of the militia.

The law governing the militia, passed by the last Legislature, should be printed, with the rules and regulations adopted, in some practical form for distribution and use of the militia.

UNIFORMS.

The Legislature last winter appropriated the sum of $18,000 for uniforming the militia, which sum by utilizing some of the old uniforms, in part, was found sufficient to newly uniform seventeen companies of infantry and the battery of light artillery. The work has been done by Wheelwright, Clark & Co., of Bangor, and B. F. Haley, Esq., of Newmarket,

JEANETTE AND JO.

Two girls I know—Jeanette and Jo—
And one is always moping;
The other lassie, come what may,
Is ever bravely hoping.

Beauty of face and girlish grace
Are theirs for joy or sorrow;
Jeanette takes brightly every day,
And Jo dreads each to-morrow.

One early morn they watched the dawn,
I saw them hand in hand together;
The whole day's sport, 'twas very plain,
Depended on the weather.

"Twill storm!" cried Jo. Jeanette spoke low:
"Yes; but 'twill soon be over:"
And as she spoke, the sudden shower
Came, beatin' down the clover.

"I told you so!' cried angry Jo;
"If always in raining!"
Then hid her face in dire despair,
Lamenting and complaining.

But sweet Jeanette, quite hopeful yet—
I tell it to her honor—
Looked up and waited till the sun
Came streaming in upon her.

The broken clouds sailed off in crowds,
Across a set of glory,
Jeanette and Jo ran laughing in—
Which made my simple story.

Joy is divine: come storm, come shine,
The hopeful are the favored;
And doubt and dread, dear girl, believe,
Of all things are the saddest.

In morning's light let youth be bright;
Take in the summer tender;
Then, as the close, shall life's decline
Be full of sunset splendor.

And ye who fret, try, like Jeanette,
To shun all weak complaining;
And not like Jo, cry out too soon:
"If always in a raining!"

DR. J. STEVENS

of Veazie, has opened an office in Bangor, No. 4 Main St., Room 1, over Buck & Thurston's store, 86 Cents Furnishing Ware store, for the special treatment of Chronic Diseases.

His thorough knowledge of the human system, both in health and disease, also the action of drugs on the same, has convinced him that all minerals or inorganic matter, (such as are not found in chemical analysis of the several parts of the human system,) taken in as medicine, must become a foreign substance there, and a great source of disease. Therefore, Dr. Stevens thrown out from his materia medica all such inorganic poisonous matter, as Mercury, Antimony, Lead, Zinc, Copper, &c., and all preparations of same for internal use, and has taken his from the Organic Kingdom, and, in a word, chooses what he considers the best from all the different systems of medicine.

In this reform practice he uses the HEALING BALSAM, the SOOTHING BALM, and the NEUTRALIZING MIXTURES taken from God's own Remedies, the Herbal Kingdom, and by science and years of practice has so perfected this system of medical practice that many of the old chronic diseases that have been pronounced incurable, are easily cured by the NEW LIFE-GIVING SYSTEM, and then he does cure a disease he leaves no deadly poison nor mineral drug in the human system to create another worse than the first.

The Dr., after due deliberation over his almost unparalleled success in curing chronic diseases has determined to make a specialty of the most ing distressing complaints, which are so puzzling to doctors in general, viz.: All forms of Blood disease, all diseases of Kidney, Liver and Bladder, all diseases peculiar to Females; also Genital Weaknesses, the result of Youthful Indiscretion, whether from Habitual indiscretion, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Piles, Worms, Biliousness, Scrofula Humors, Rheumatism, Salt Rheum, Cancers. In this he uses the famous Philadelphia antidote. Scores are now rejoicing by his infallible treatment of Fits and Epilepsy and all diseases of the system he handles with skill and delicacy, and will do you no harm in any case whatever.

Lung Complaints, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Spinal Complaints, are treated with great skill, and if he cannot warrant a cure in all cases, he will help, and many cases permanently restored to health. Those who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity of being restored to health and happiness, should not miss this rare chance.
